

“GEARED TO THE RESULT”
and still growing

Nelson

Experienced Commercial Practitioner

Are you looking for an opportunity to join a progressive, client focused, very busy law firm in one of the fastest growing regions in New Zealand, whose operation is based on a team approach where all share in the successes of the firm? ... Are you interested in being part of a professional legal team that prides itself on excellence and achieving the result? ... Are you interested in joining a law firm that stands out from the crowd, prides itself on providing the highest quality legal services, where there is no ceiling on the level of your financial return, where salaries are competitive with the Auckland market and where you are paid based on the efforts you make and the results you achieve and where there is every opportunity for equity participation? ... If you are prepared to put in the hard yards and reap the rewards, then read on for the opportunities that exist in this equal opportunity law firm where respect for one's colleagues and getting the job done are paramount.

We have a position available for an experienced commercial practitioner within our firm in Nelson.

This is an opportunity for an ambitious, hardworking, capable lawyer with no less than five years post admission experience in commercial and property law in New Zealand.

Initially you will be working closely with one of our very experienced commercial lawyers servicing clients throughout New Zealand and in some cases overseas

The subject matter of your work will be most varied, interesting and rewarding.

The position

- We are offering a very competitive remuneration package that will reflect the successful applicant's ability, experience, commitment and results.
- The work will be interesting, varied and wide ranging, generated from a significant, loyal and ever expanding client base.
- You will be working with a team of hard working and competent legal practitioners and support professionals.
- You will have the utility of up-to-date IT support and databases and will work in very pleasant, modern surroundings, situated in the sunshine capital of New Zealand.
- Our philosophies of practice include:
  1. Providing a pleasant, positive and fun working environment focusing on excellence and client satisfaction where our clients are very much advocates for the service we provide;
  2. We want to work with people who enjoy each other and share our values;

3. A culture of caring for each other, our team and our clients;
4. Providing an atmosphere for challenge and job satisfaction with opportunities for progression;
and
5. Sharing in our financial successes to ensure that the whole team is properly rewarded and individual's performance is recognised.

Applications together with resume and testimonials should be provided to C & F Legal Ltd:

C & F Legal Ltd
Solicitors
PO Box 1049
Nelson 7040
diana@cflegal.co.nz

If you wish to make any enquiries about the position, please do not hesitate to telephone Rick Farr on 021 777 443 or 03 545 8080